Eligibility:

- To be eligible for the La Verne Noyes Scholarship, the applicant must be a United States citizen who is a blood descendant of a United States Army or Navy World War I veteran, who served for at least four months prior to November 11, 1918, and whose military service was terminated by death or an honorable discharge.

- A recipient must be enrolled full-time in a degree-seeking undergraduate program at the University of California, Irvine.

- In accordance with the terms of the LaVerne Noyes Scholarship, financial need and academic standing will be considered in the selection process for all scholarship applicants.

Application Procedures & Requirements:

1. Students must submit the scholarship application (available on the reverse side) to the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships by Thursday, October 13, 2006. In addition students are required to apply for aid by:
   A. Submitting a 2006-07 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to the federal processor by March 2, 2006 (FAFSAs are available from the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships and on the Web: www.fafsa.ed.gov).
   B. Completing your financial aid file by May 1, 2006 (this may require submitting copies of the student’s and parents’ completed and signed 2005 federal income tax returns (1040s) and any other documentation requested by the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships).
   C. Submitting additional documentation, as required.

2. Official documents must be presented to verify the military service of the Veteran on whom the application is based (i.e. enlistment records, honorable discharge certificates, certification letter from the Veterans Administration). Photocopies are acceptable.

3. Return the scholarship application to the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships (address below).

Please Note:

- The deadline for submission of the LaVerne Noyes Scholarship is October 13, 2006. Applications will not be considered after this date.

- Scholarship recipients will be notified by November 30, 2006.

- The dollar amount of the scholarship is determined by the total amount of eligible recipients each year.
