2012-13 Domestic Partnership Status for Parents

Name _____ UCI ID Number _____

Domestic Partnerships

The California Domestic Partner Rights and Responsibilities Act of 2003 extends rights, benefits and obligations to individuals in Registered Domestic Partnerships, effective January 1, 2005. This may impact your eligibility for state and university financial aid only. You must complete this form and return it to our office in order to be considered for such aid including Cal Grant, UC Irvine Grant and University Loan. This does not impact your current eligibility for federal student aid (i.e Pell Grant, Perkins Loan, Direct Loan).

Federal Aid –

- Your eligibility for federal financial aid is not based on your custodial parent's status as a Registered Domestic Partner.
- You must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) using only your and your custodial parent's information.

State/University Aid -

- If your custodial parent is in a Registered Domestic Partnership you must provide information regarding that partner for state and university financial aid purposes. This is in addition to the FAFSA information already submitted for federal aid.
- A copy of the Declaration of Domestic Partnership or Certificate of Domestic Partnership issued by the Secretary of State must be submitted with the Domestic Partnership Form.
- If the partnership is recognized outside of the state of California documentation from the issuing state must be submitted.
- In addition to the submission of the Declaration or Certificate, the attached form must be must be completed, including the signatures of your parent and their partner.

The information collected on the attached form is used only to determine your financial aid eligibility for state and university funds. Information is collected and retained only by the UCI Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships and is subject to FERPA and university privacy policies.
