Summer Financial Aid Eligibility
You must meet the following requirements to receive financial aid during Summer Session:

- Be a continuing UCI student or entering Fall 2008.
- Have a financial aid award for the current (2007-08) academic year.
- Complete a Summer Session Financial Aid Application.
- Enroll in a minimum of six (6) units during one session or a combination of Summer I, II or 10-week session.

How to Apply
You must follow these important steps to have your financial aid funds pay your summer session course fees:

1. Complete a Summer Session Financial Aid Application and Financial Aid Agreement.
2. Return both forms to the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships by the deadline.
3. Once your application has been processed you will receive an e-mail asking you to log on and accept your financial aid funds for 2008 Summer Session.
4. Wait one business day after you have accepted your financial aid and then enroll in your Summer Session courses.

Attending Another UC During Summer

- If you plan on attending another UC during the summer you may be eligible to receive financial aid through our office.
- You will need to be enrolled at least half-time and have the units transferred to UCI upon completion.
- You must be enrolled at another UC before you are awarded for Summer Financial Aid at UCI.

Priority Deadline - June 2, 2008
To be considered for UC Irvine Grant, if eligible, you must submit a Summer Financial Aid application by June 2, 2008. You must submit the paper application to our office in person.

You may still apply for summer financial aid after the June 2nd deadline for Pell Grant or loans.

Applying Late
Late applications for summer financial aid will be accepted until August 4, 2008. We will no longer be processing summer financial aid applications after this date.

Satisfactory Academic Progress
Students who have been notified that they are not currently meeting satisfactory academic progress requirements may be eligible to receive summer financial aid to make up their deficiencies.
Fee Payments
In order to have Summer Session fees paid students must:
• Submit a Summer Financial Aid Application.
• Accept your financial aid funds.
• Be enrolled in at least six (6) units.

Changes in Enrollment
• In order to remain eligible for summer financial aid, you must complete the number of units specified on your application.
• If you fail to complete the units indicated on your application, you may be billed for all or part of your summer aid and your aid eligibility for the 2008-09 academic year may be impacted.
• Submit a “Summer Change of Status” form to notify the Financial Aid Office of any changes in enrollment including dropping units, changing sessions or no longer attending Summer Session. Changes to your enrollment may result in being billed for funds received.
• If you have any questions regarding the consequences of your enrollment changes, you should speak to a Financial Aid Counselor.

Special Programs
Regents Scholars
If you are a Regents’ Scholar and have been awarded a Summer Scholarship, you should complete the Summer Financial Aid Application on line, by logging onto “My Aid” and selecting “Summer 2008.” You must complete your application no later than June 9th. Or you may submit a paper application to the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships, Attention: Assistant Director, Scholarships. You will be notified via email regarding your eligibility for funding.

Graduate Students
Funding is available to graduate students in the form of the Federal Direct Student Loan (FDSL). Graduate students must be enrolled in summer coursework that is applicable to their Graduate program to be eligible for Summer Financial Aid.

Freshman Summer Start Program (FSSP)
Funding is available to students participating in the Freshman Summer Start Program. Funds are limited to Federal Direct Student Loans (FDSL). Students must complete the 2007-08 FAFSA by June 30, 2008 in order to be eligible.
Available Funding
The Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships has limited funding available for students attending Summer Session.

William D. Ford Direct Loan Program (FDSL)
For dependent students who have borrowed their full FDSL eligibility during the academic year, the only form of funding for summer is a Parent Loan for Undergraduate Students (PLUS).

For independent students who have borrowed their full FDSL eligibility during the academic year, the only form of funding for summer is an alternative loan. Information on alternative loans is available online at www.ofas.uci.edu.

Federal Direct PLUS Loan (PLUS)
• This loan is available to parents of dependent students.
• Loans can be certified up to the cost of summer, minus any other financial aid.
• PLUS loans are based on credit approval.

Federal Pell, ACG and SMART Grants
• Pell, ACG or SMART Grant funds are available for Summer Session for those students who have remaining eligibility from their 2007-08 academic year award.
• Pell, ACG or SMART Grants are not available for students enrolled in Summer Session II only.
• If you receive a Pell Grant and do not complete all units as stated on your Summer Session Application for Financial Aid, you may be billed for all or a portion of the amount received.
• You must be enrolled in at least twelve (12) units to receive an ACG/SMART grant. If you complete less than twelve (12) units you will be billed for the entire amount received during summer.

UCI Grant
If you received a UCI Grant during the 2007-08 academic year, you may be eligible for a UCI Grant for summer. You must complete a Summer Financial Aid application, demonstrate financial aid eligibility and enroll in at least eight (8) units.
