Satisfactory Academic Progress
Appeal Instructions

You have been notified that you have not met the Satisfactory Academic Progress requirement to continue receiving financial aid. The Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships has an appeal process available to students who, due to extenuating circumstances, have been unable to meet the minimum academic requirements. The following is important information to consider when completing your request and the steps to submitting an appeal.

Circumstances we do consider: Extenuating circumstances may include, but are not limited to, prolonged illness or hospitalization, a death in the family or a change of major required by your academic department.

Circumstances we do not consider: Extenuating circumstances generally do not include a voluntary change of major, double majors, or participation in an off-campus program (such as EAP, IOP, UCDC).

Deadlines to submit Appeal Requests: The following dates are the term deadlines to submit Appeal Requests. If you submit your fall request after August 31st, you should make arrangements (other than financial aid) to pay your own fees for fall term.

Steps to completing your Appeal Request (Undergraduate and TCP Students):

1. Prepare your Appeal Request – Indicate the nature of your appeal and include the reason(s) why you were unable to make academic progress. This information will assist the office in reviewing your situation and best determine the impact your extenuating circumstances may have had in completing your degree. Please submit any supporting documentation that would assist in evaluating your extenuating circumstances. This may include, but not be limited to, a statement from your physician or hospital records indicating your or your family member’s illness or a death certificate or obituary for a family member.

   Also, please explain how your situation has changed and would therefore prevent a re-occurrence.

2. Submit your Appeal Request - Make a copy of your appeal and any supporting documents for your records before you submit. To ensure timely processing of your appeal, you should submit your appeal in person to our office in 102 Aldrich Hall so we can review it to ensure it is complete. A financial aid counselor will review your request upon submission. No appointment is necessary.
